There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Count 1, 18 U.S.C. § 1956(H): Conspiracy to Launder Monetary Instruments of the Three-Count Indictment. All remaining counts are DISMISSED by motion of the Government.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court has found that the property identified in the preliminary order of forfeiture is subject to forfeiture. The preliminary order is incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final as to the defendant.¹

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Leo Alfonso Alvarez, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 18 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02.

¹ This recommended language regarding an order of forfeiture is provided in anticipation that, by the time of sentencing, the government will have sought such an order. At this time, the Probation Officer is not aware that an order of forfeiture has been issued. In the event that no order has been issued by the time of sentencing, the forfeiture language will not be applicable.

2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of any controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. The defendant shall participate in a domestic violence treatment program as approved and directed by the Probation Officer.
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has not ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
8. The defendant shall submit his person and property to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause.
9. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours of his release from custody.
10. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of his release from custody, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court as directed during his first year of supervised release.
11. The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state, or local law.
12. The defendant shall reside for a period of nine (9) months in a residential reentry center (community corrections component), as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon on September 11, 2017. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal located at the United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California 92701-4516.

Defendant advised of right to appeal.

Defendant's bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Court recommends the defendant participate in the RDAP program while incarcerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
